

Reviewing Our Work

What are three instructional activities that you could do with one mobile device as the teacher?

How could you effectively use two mobile devices in your classroom?

What are some ways you could use mobile devices when you are working with another teacher in the same room (i.e., in a coteaching lesson)?

What if all of your students have a mobile device? What could you do differently in that situation?