Working within international teams

STUDENT HANDOUT

Imagine that you are applying for a distinguished scholarship that will provide you with a good income for the next few years and help to advance your career. The scholarship will enable you to work within an international team on a specific project that is of great personal interest. Therefore, you really want to succeed in your application.

As part of the application process you have been asked to produce an essay (written assignment) of no more than 2,000 words that gives your account of 'best practice' when working within an international team. The structure, style and content of your essay are personal choices and you can also choose the type of team, your expected role within it and the nature of the research project. When you write your essay ensure that you concentrate on issues of 'best practice' when working within an international team.

The scholarship providers will make their award based on the best essay, so ensure that you produce an excellent piece of written work that will win you the scholarship.

Learning outcome: By the end of this activity you will have researched and produced an essay on best practice within international teams, which will help you to feel more confident and knowledgeable about working effectively within an international team as your course and career progresses.
