

Fullerton Police Department

Dan Hughes
Chief
Of Police

3/26/2015

PUBLIC ADVISORY

Fullerton police are searching for a suspect believed to be involved in two residential burglaries and a criminal trespass in the evening hours of March 24th, and one attempted residential burglary Wednesday evening, March 25th. This fourth incident of the week occurred in the 2900 block of Ashcreek Lane; all in the Parkhurst Neighborhood.

In two of the cases, the crime was interrupted by the resident. In the third case, the suspect is believed to have entered the house through an unlocked bedroom door on the second story balcony. The house was ransacked. The suspect was seen wearing dark colored clothing and had a ski mask covering his face.

A neighbor in the 2800 block of Ashberry Court checked his surveillance cameras and found images of a male, dressed in dark clothing, trespassing on his property and running through his backyard.

The investigation is on-going and anyone with information about the incident is urged to contact the Fullerton Police Department at (714) 738-6821. Those wishing to provide information anonymously can call the Orange County Crime Stoppers at 1(855) TIP-OCCS or to their website at www.crimestoppers.org.

As always you can sign up to receive crime alerts on the web at www.fullertonwatch.com

Crime Analysis Unit • Fullerton Police Department
237 W Commonwealth Ave • Fullerton, CA 92832