| EVALUATION TOOL 8:  | A HELPING HAND  |              |   |
| OVERVIEW:           | This is a great creative review and evaluation tool that enables the young people to identify what they learned and how they learned it.  |              |   |
| WHAT YOU WILL NEED: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A copy of the programme outcomes</li> <li>• Coloured paper</li> <li>• Felt tips</li> <li>• Scissors</li> </ul>   | PREPARATION: | None  |
| PROCESS:            | Step 1: At the end of the programme gather the group together. Between you see if you can remember all the aspects of the programme or course. Draw a visual map of everything that you have done. Step 2: Explain that you are going to run a creative review session that will help them and us to work out what has worked for them. Step 3: Ask them to draw round their hands and cut some out (however many you think they have the stamina for). Step 4: Ask them to write on one side of the hands all the things that they have learned and developed and changed (ways they think/skills/knowledge/ attitudes, etc.) Share what they have written. Step 5: Ask them to write on the back of each hand HOW they think they learned that particular skill/attitude, etc. E.g. Did they learn it by watching, role modelling, listening, by taking part in a specific activity, through the relationships that they built, etc. Step 6: Photocopy/photograph the hands as a record. The group might want to take them back and hang them from the ceiling at home/youth centre, etc. |              |   |
| ANALYSIS:           | You can identify the common themes of what they learned:         ‘Overall 8/10 young people said that they had learned ...’         ‘The most learning was gained from ...’ You can draw out the key themes:         ‘These aspects of the programmes promoted the most learning ...’  |              |   |
