

Chapter 12: Prejudice: Interplay of Cognitive and Affective Biases

1. c. Both A & B
2. a. Status & Competence/Competition & Warmth
3. b. Disgust
4. c. The middle-class
5. c. Appraisal theories of emotions
6. b. Exemplar-based
7. d. All of the above
8. c. Ally
9. c. Discrete intergroup emotions result from intergroup threat to the group's integrity
10. b. Genetic influences
11. a. Antecedents > Threat > Prejudiced attitudes
12. b. Empathy
13. d. They have more externalized standards
14. b. Less than 100 milliseconds
15. d. All of the above
16. a. Equal- status intergroup contact
17. c. Sexual orientation
18. c. Both A & B
19. b. Prescriptive
20. d. None of the above
21. d. Contempt and Anger
22. d. Barbarian
23. d. Including others in the ingroup
24. b. Death anxiety
25. c. Disgust
26. a. Role congruity theory
27. a. Affective prejudices