

Factorial notation: shorthand that tells us how many independent variables (factors) and how many levels of each independent variable (factor) a research study has.