

Pearson moment correlation coefficient: statistic that quantifies the linear relationship between two scale variables; often referred to simply as a correlation coefficient.