

Constructs: variables that cannot be directly assessed but must be inferred in some way.