

Outlier: score that is extremely high or extremely low compared with most other scores in a dataset.