

p value (or significance level): probability that a statistical outcome was obtained by chance and is a Type I error.