

Within-groups variability: amount of variability between scores within each experimental group.