

Figure 1.2 ► Chronology of the Karinna Moskalenko Poisoning

Date	Events
12 October 2008	Moskalenko's husband finds pellets of mercury in the family car.
13 October 2008	Moskalenko files a complaint with French authorities, who open an investigation.
14 October 2008	Moskalenko is taken to a French hospital with dizziness, headaches, and vomiting.
15 October 2008	Moskalenko misses a pretrial hearing in Moscow in the Anna Politkovskaya case.
16 October 2008	Press reports indicate that toxicology tests confirm mercury as the substance found in the Moskalenko vehicle.