

RESEARCH ISSUE

Most of these reports are unclassified but carry the “For Official Use Only” handling instruction that limits who can see them. For example, full-time firefighters are considered vetted and trusted, and can see the reports, but the volunteer firefighters working alongside them cannot. What are some ways to improve on this impediment to information (intelligence) sharing?