

RESEARCH ISSUE

As noted in the text, this week's question asks you to assess whether or not fusion centers have been effective in meeting their primary function, sharing terrorism-related information between state, local, private-sector, and federal officials.

Prepare a five-page paper providing your assessment of this question. You should begin by looking at the two reports cited in the text—the key judgments from both of which are provided below. You should also cite at least two additional sources in your paper.