

(Continued)

Transportation

He/she will travel to the target country by plane. . . .

The odds are against the terrorist flying directly from the Middle East to the target country; he/she will fly to a third country, stay there for a short period, and then go on to the target country. . . .

Weapons

Weapons used by terrorists in Europe included rifles, pistols, Russian-made fragmentation hand grenades, thermite grenades, homemade bombs and other explosives, including plastique. . . .

Training

The terrorist will have been trained for his mission abroad in the Middle East, probably by a fedayeen group in Jordan. . . .

Modus Operandi: General

All attacks were carried out by Arabs who traveled from the Middle East to the target country specifically for the attack. . . .